

TV Game Show + Powerful Debriefs + Exciting Music = Path Breaking Approach to Inspire People

Through the Game on Excellence, eM Play International offers a path breaking approach to inspire conference audience to deliver the message of excellence. Combining cutting edge technology with practical learning, this international TV game show module creates high voltage experience like never before. If you are truly seeking a 'wow' for your event you've definitely found it. You have also stepped on an amazing value for an unforgettable experience!

The attributes of excellence in play for the game are:

- Continuous Passion
- Constant Innovation
- 1% Extra Effort
- Role of Failure
- Staying Relevant
- Showing Up
- Bouncing Back
- Collaboration

How does it work?

The participants are divided into teams. Each team nominates a leader who is given a high tech RF keypad which works as the response unit.

Game show questions will be projected on the AV screen. All teams send in their responses using the keypads.

The game works on the concept of High Risk – High Gains.

The program packs a lot of punch for its impact by using video feeds, nuggets, anecdotes gathered by eM Play International during their many interactions with world class professionals.

The scores are revealed at the appropriate times to hold the audience to the edge of their seats. Music, humor and prizes take the experience to an unbelievable high.

Other USP

The content, look & feel, and presentation can all be tailor made for various needs like achieving targets, building teams, addressing theme specific touch points.

Special feature:

Special edition silver coins, team jerseys, miniature cricket bats with special branding serves as excellent prizes for winners.

What leaders are saying...

We had a fantastic game show during the induction of the team into a new division. The participants were at the edge of the seats. I appreciate the efforts, quality of work and your team is superb. I would surely be looking forward for more such events from your team.
